ANGUS RANCH

We would like to invite you to attend our March 26th offering of Leachman Bulls. We feel like this is a very strong set of bulls from top to bottom. As always we are committed to improving our cowherd with the use new AI sires that will help the calving, weaning, maternal and total productivity of our cowherd which in turn will produce bulls that will go out and add to the profitability of the commercial cows they are used on. We have rigorously culled this set of bulls at every phase of development and you can buy with confidence they will work for you to help improve you cowherd. When you invest in a Leachman Bull, you can buy with confidence as stand behind them 100%.

This normally is very exciting time of year for all of us here at Leachman Angus with the arrival of new babies hitting the ground, seeing our two year females come into production and the new added AI sire's calves along with the growth of this year's bull offering but I had an unfortunate accident on the ranch on February 6 which required me to be air transported to Billings to repair an aortic dissection and an aortic valve replacement. After spending two different stays in the Billings hospital over the course of 14 days, I am back at the ranch. I am in for a very long road to recovery but the doctors are optimistic for a return to normal activities. This has created a major dilemma for all of us but we are proceeding with our bull sale. Along with the unruly winter weather we have had over the last several weeks, we apologize for not being able to have as many pictures of some of the leading herd bull candidates in this catalog. We will have our video up on the internet as soon as we can with hopefully the weather cooperating. We encourage you to watch our bull sale offering video at LeachmanAngus.com that is sure to help with your selection process.

I will be glad to visit with you about the bulls but I would also encourage you to talk with Ron Frye who has been helping with our marketing program and is familiar with the bulls if you have any questions. Also, please feel free to contact, Kurt Kangus, our regional Angus Association representative, Joe Goggins, our auctioneer, along with John Goggins of the Western Ag Reporter.

Please come early to the view the bulls, enjoy a wonderful CAB lunch and visit other progressive ranchers that use Leachman Bulls. If you can not come on sale day, we will still offer our Sight Unseen Purchase Program guarantee and view the bulls on our video feed. We will deliver the bulls as promptly as possible after sale day. We thank you ahead for you patience and understanding during this very difficult time for us. We also are so thankful for all the wonderful neighbors and friends that have pitched in and helped with the day to day chores and huge amount of food brought to the house. We feel so very blessed to have such unbelievable support from everyone.

Sincerely,
Eric, Marlo, Abby, & Wade
Leachman

Welcome to the annual Leachman Angus Ranch Bull Sale.

February was a tough month for the Leachman family. Eric's medical issues were enough to shake any family to their core and let's just say that it is only by the grace of God that he will be attending his own bull sale on March 26th. I'm going to let Eric and his family handle the details of filling you in on the very difficult month of February and I'll just stick to the actual bull sale.

This is a set of bulls that Eric and his family have been very excited to share with their customers since they first started hitting the ground a year ago. This year's offering has a combination of sires they have used in the past and a few new sires such as Connealy Spur, Pay Grade and BankRoll. We think you will be equally impressed. One thing about this offering they certainly have the Leachman Angus Ranch Look.

The Leachman Family has been breeding Registered Angus cattle for generations. They are a trusted seed stock provider who care deeply about the product they raise and the ranching operations that purchase their high-quality bulls.

Eric, Marlo, Abby & Wade take great pride in their operation especially the cows! If you ever have a chance, take time to tour the cow herd. The Leachman family would be delighted to take the time and give you a little insight into Leachman Angus Ranch.

If I can be of any assistance in your preparation of this sale or on sale day please don't hesitate to give me a call.
